October 19

This guided bus tour included IIHR-Hydrosience and Engineering Clear Creek Project, the Iowa River Greenbelt, and the hydroelectric dam at Iowa Falls. Theodore Steinberg, environmental and legal historian, author of Nature Incorporated, Down to Earth, and Acts of God gave a reading and a lecture in Iowa Falls.

February 8

The guided bus and walking tour included Coralville Dam, IIHR Columbia River model dams, and an Iowa River photographic exhibit on display until May at the UI Main Library. After a tour of the Iowa City Water Treatment Plant, participants listened to a reading by Jacque Leslie from his book, Deep Water: The Epic Struggle over Dams, Displaced People, and the Environment.

April 18

The guided bus tour leaves at 3 from the south side of the UI Main Library heading south to a farm, Louisa County nature preserves, and UI's Lucille A. Carver Mississippi Riverside Environmental Research Station. Connie Mutel, author of The Emerald Horizon: The History of Nature in Iowa, will act as guide. A box supper will be served. At 7, Nancy Langston, professor in the Gaylord Nelson Environmental Institute at the University of Wisconsin and author of Where Land and Water Meet, will read and lecture at the high school in Columbus Junction, where the Cedar and Iowa Rivers meet. The bus will return to the UI Main Library.

Sponsored by The University of Iowa Office of the Provost, the Office of the Vice President for Research, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the Perry A. and Helen Judy Bond Fund for Interdisciplinary Interaction, the Center for Global and Regional Environmental Research, the Center for Health Effects of Environmental Contamination, and the departments of English, History, and American Studies.
